The Group is steadily implementing its Mid-Term Plan for 2023–2027. In 2025, which the Plan positions as a turning point, the Group not only acquired the DUNLOP trademark and other rights for four-wheel tires in Europe, North America, and the Oceania region, but also announced the Long-term Corporate Strategy “R.I.S.E. 2035,” looking ahead to 2035. Furthermore, in December, the Group held the DUNLOP Brand Strategy Announcement. In 2026, the Group will further promote global brand management centered on the DUNLOP brand.

Tire sales volume fell below the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year overall, despite increased sales resulting from the launch of DUNLOP brand tire sales in Europe starting in January, as market conditions remained sluggish and geopolitical tensions in the Middle East weighed on demand.

As a result, sales revenue of the Group increased 5.0% from the same period of the previous fiscal year to ¥302,170 million, business profit increased 18.8% to ¥16,795 million, operating profit increased 22.3% to ¥15,066 million and profit attributable to owners of parent increased 140.5% to ¥8,565 million.

Business Performance by business segment was as follows.

Tire Business

Sales revenue in the tire business increased 6.3% from the same period of the previous fiscal year to ¥259,918 million, and business profit increased 35.0% to ¥14,762 million.

In the domestic original equipment market, sales volume exceeded the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year, despite a decline in automobile production due to factors such as the situation in the Middle East, supported by a recovery from reduced production at some automobile manufacturers in the previous fiscal year.

In the domestic replacement market, sales volume fell below the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year, reflecting a reaction to temporary demand ahead of price increases in the same period last year, as well as a decline in orders for offtake products.

In the overseas original equipment market, sales volume fell slightly below the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year. Sales to China, which had continued to decline, turned to an increase, while sales to North America declined significantly amid sluggish market conditions.

In the overseas replacement market, sales volume in the Asia-Oceania region decreased from the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year, despite the effects of various sales promotion measures, as the Group continued to emphasize profitability-focused sales and demand in some countries had been pulled forward ahead of price increases in the same period of the previous year. In Europe, sales volume increased significantly from the same period of the previous fiscal year, supported by the launch of DUNLOP brand tire sales. In the Americas, sales volume in North America declined compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year, partly due to the impact of tariffs. In South America, sales volume decreased as tire imports from outside the region increased and price competition intensified.

Sports Business

Sales revenue in the sports business decreased 0.8% from the same period of the previous fiscal year to ¥32,180 million, and business profit decreased 47.4% from the same period of the previous fiscal year to ¥914 million.

In the golf goods market, sales revenue fell below the level of the previous fiscal year, as SRIXON brand golf clubs and balls entered their second year after launch and market conditions deteriorated, despite solid performance of XXIO 14, which was launched at the end of last year, in the Japanese market.

In the tennis goods market, sales revenue exceeded the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year due to increased sales in the major markets of Europe and North America.

Business profit fell below the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year, as an increase in profit from tennis goods was outweighed by a decline in revenue from golf goods.

Industrial and Other Products Business

Sales revenue in the industrial and other products business decreased 6.6% from the same period of the previous fiscal year to ¥10,072 million, and business profit decreased 22.6% to ¥1,148 million.

Sales revenue in the industrial and other products business fell below the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year, as increases in sales of civil works and marine products, medical rubber products, and vibration control dampers were offset by declines in sales of architectural flooring, rubber parts for office equipment, and sports artificial turf. Business profit also fell below the level of the same period of the previous fiscal year, mainly due to lower performance in rubber parts for office equipment, rubber gloves, and architectural flooring.

(2) Financial Position

	As of December 31, 2025	As of March 31, 2026	Increase (Decrease)
	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	Millions of yen
Total assets	1,459,932	1,490,600	30,668
Total liabilities	723,622	743,464	19,842
Total equity	736,310	747,136	10,826
Total equity attributable to owners of parent	716,080	725,721	9,641
Total equity attributable to owners of parent ratio (%)	49.0	48.7	(0.3)
Equity attributable to owners of parent per share	2,724.44 yen	2,761.12 yen	36.68 yen

The financial position of the Group as of March 31, 2026 was as follows.

Total assets increased ¥30,668 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥1,490,600 million mainly as a result of an increase in inventories, trade and other receivables and tangible assets.

Total liabilities increased ¥19,842 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥743,464 million mainly as a result of an increase in bonds and loans payable, despite a decrease in trade and other payables and income tax payable.

Total equity as of March 31, 2026 increased ¥10,826 million from the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥747,136 million, of which equity attributable to owners of parent accounted for ¥725,721 million, and non-controlling interest accounted for ¥21,415 million.

As a result, equity attributable to owners of parent ratio was 48.7%, and equity attributable to owners of parent per share was ¥2,761.12.

(3) Consolidated Financial Results Forecast and Other Future Forecast

For the consolidated results forecast for the half year ending June 30, 2026, compared with the initial forecast, on the profit side, the depreciation of the yen and further restraint in fixed costs and expenses are expected to be factors contributing to higher profits, while the increase in raw material prices is expected to have a negative impact on profits. As a result, the profit level is expected to remain at the same level as the previous forecast. With respect to the consolidated results forecast for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026, compared with the initial forecast, rising raw material prices are expected to be a factor reducing profits; however, we expect to absorb part of the impact through price pass-through. In addition, as with the half year, the impact of yen depreciation and further restraint in fixed costs and expenses are expected to contribute to higher profits, and the profit level is expected to remain at the same level as the previous forecast.

(Segment Information)

1. Information by reportable segment

Reportable segments of the Group are the units for which separate financial information is available and periodically reviewed by the Board of Directors as the highest decision-making body for the purposes of deciding the allocation of management resources and evaluating business performance.

The Group has three divisions based on operations in Tires, Sports and Industrial and Other Products. Each division formulates comprehensive strategies for both domestic and overseas markets and develops business activities.

Therefore, the Group identifies “Tires”, “Sports”, and “Industrial and Other Products” as reportable segments.

Major products and services or details of business that belong to each reportable segment are as follows.

Reportable segment	Major products and services or details of business
Tires	Tires and tubes (for automobiles, construction vehicles, industrial vehicles, automotive races and rallies, motorcycles, etc.) Automotive system business (instant mobility systems, deflation warning systems, etc.)
Sports	Sporting goods (golf clubs, golf balls and other golf goods, tennis goods, etc.) Operation of golf tournaments Operation of golf and tennis schools
Industrial and Other Products	High-performance rubber products (vibration control dampers, rubber parts for office equipment, rubber parts for medical applications, etc.) Daily life supplies (rubber gloves for cooking and other operations, ramps for wheelchair use, etc.) Products for infrastructure (marine dock fenders, flooring materials for factories and sports facilities, etc.)

2. Reportable segment sales revenues and profit or loss

Inter-segment sales revenues are stated at wholesale prices based on current market values.

Figures for reportable segment are based on business profit.

Information about reportable segment sales revenues and profit or loss is as follows.

(Contingent Liabilities)

Significant litigation

For the three months ended March 31, 2026 (January 1, 2026 to March 31, 2026)

In July 2025, SUMITOMO RUBBER (CHINA) CO., LTD., a consolidated subsidiary of the Company, filed a lawsuit against Changshu Yanjiang Comprehensive Services Co., Ltd. and Changshu Sunchen Supply Chain Management Co., Ltd. with Suzhou Intermediate People's Court, seeking cancellation of the contract for the warehouse lease, and payment of damages. It is difficult to reasonably estimate the impact of the lawsuit on the financial position and operating results of the Group at this time, and therefore, such impact has not been reflected in the condensed quarterly consolidated financial statements.
