2. Reasons for Dividends from Surplus

The Company considers the return of gains to shareholders to be a matter deserving of the utmost priority. Accordingly, our basic policy is to ensure a long-term, stable shareholder returns based on comprehensive consideration of dividend payout ratios, business outlook, retained earnings levels, and other such indicators on a consolidated basis. We will upwardly revise the dividend forecast announced on November 12, 2025 by ¥7 and pay a year-end dividend of ¥42 per share, since the consolidated financial actual results for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 exceeded previous result forecast. We will submit this matter to the annual general meeting of shareholders scheduled to be held on March 26, 2026.
